"TOLU, BOCK AND RYE." This compound, according to your formula, in the opinion of this office, would have a sufficient quantity of the Balls AM OF TOLU to give it all the advantages ascribed to this atticle in pectoral complaints, while the Whisky and Syrup constitute an emulsion rendering the compound an agreeable remedy to the patient.

In the ominion of this soffice, an article compounded according to this formula, may properly be classed as a medicinal preparation under the provisions of Schedule A, following section 3437, United States Revised Statutes, and when so stamped may be sold by Drigists, Apothecaries and other persons, without rendering them liable to pay a special tax as liquor dealers. Yours respectfully, Islandi GBEKN F. RAUM, Commissioner, Put up in Quart Size Bottles for Family Use.
